

Hays Inlet Festival

Celebrating the people, places and environment of the Hays Inlet catchment and its waterways through a series of environmental, recreational and cultural activities

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

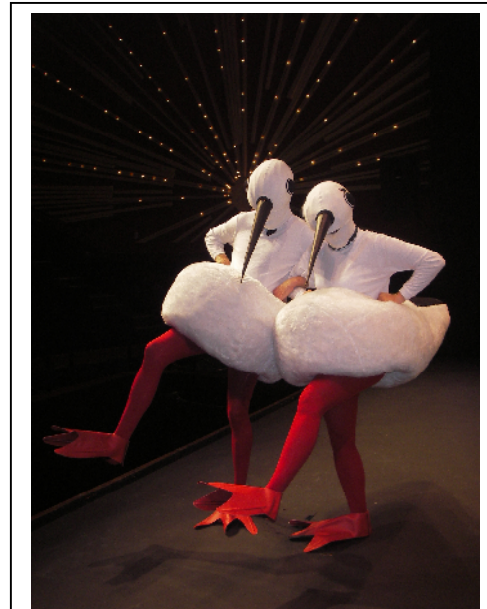

Want to make a difference locally?

Volunteer roles are available for the upcoming Hays Inlet Festival, where you can:

- Make a positive difference in your local community and environment
- Meet like-minded people
- Have some festival fun
- Boost your skills in team work, festival organising & communication

Positions will involve:

- manning information and food stalls
- organising the festival site area
- dressing up in kids character costumes
- counting participants
- surveying people and much more.

Mascots 'Fred and Fiona, the Black Winged Silt Wader Birds'

When: Sunday 6th June 2010, various times between 7am – 6pm

Where: Pelican Park, Clontarf, Redcliffe Peninsular

Volunteers are provided with: a full briefing, insurance cover, shirt, refreshments and certificates of appreciation.

For more information and express your interest in volunteering visit www.prca.org.au

or contact Natasha on 0439 586 462; email haysinlet@yahoo.com.au